

YOUR RESOURCE FOR TOTAL PROTECTION

Full Service Protection

Regulated fire protection and security systems are crucial in a retail environment, where there is high volume of inventory and customer traffic. Protecting lives and property against unexpected fire hazards is not only expected; it is the law.

The Hiller Companies, founded in 1919, is your one source fire solution provider. We offer comprehensive, customizable services including design, engineering, installation, service and maintenance of your fire protection system. Our team of experts is well versed in the stringent regulations set forth by the National Fire Protection Association and is equipped to manage the needs of any size retail or office environment.
